Foreword

This book is a record of the outstanding events of the year 1939-40 at Jacksonville High School and should serve as a permanent reminder of the achievements of the Senior Class.

This being the thirtieth anniversary of the publication of the "Crimson J", we therefore consider it appropriate to use as our theme "School Days".

We, the Senior Class of 1940, dedicate our yearbook to Miss Louise Sheppard, our class dean, who has been a companion as well as a competent adviser to us. Her charming personality has made an everlasting impression on the graduating class.

Twinkle, twinkle little lights;
You seem to shine so many nights
For operas, plays, and dances, too;
'Most every week there's something new.

Looking downward from above,
We see the school we all should love.
Aside from studies, grades, and tests,
We think our school is 'bout the best.

Education seekers wait for the bell.

Confusion reigns supreme for five minutes.

Extra! Extra! a whole page of scandal! What I couldn't tell! Well what I couldn't tell wouldn't be worth mentioning. It has been fun hasn't it Wilma Lee? I should say I won't ever forget the time we went to Macomb and I don't think you will either. I read your remembrance and I don't think I have any to add. My goodness, I read part of your "J"- you sure do get around. What a girl!

I sure do envy the way you play the piano though- You can really play- Keep up the good work. Helen hoping that I'll see lots of you this summer and that our friendship may always continue as it is now—

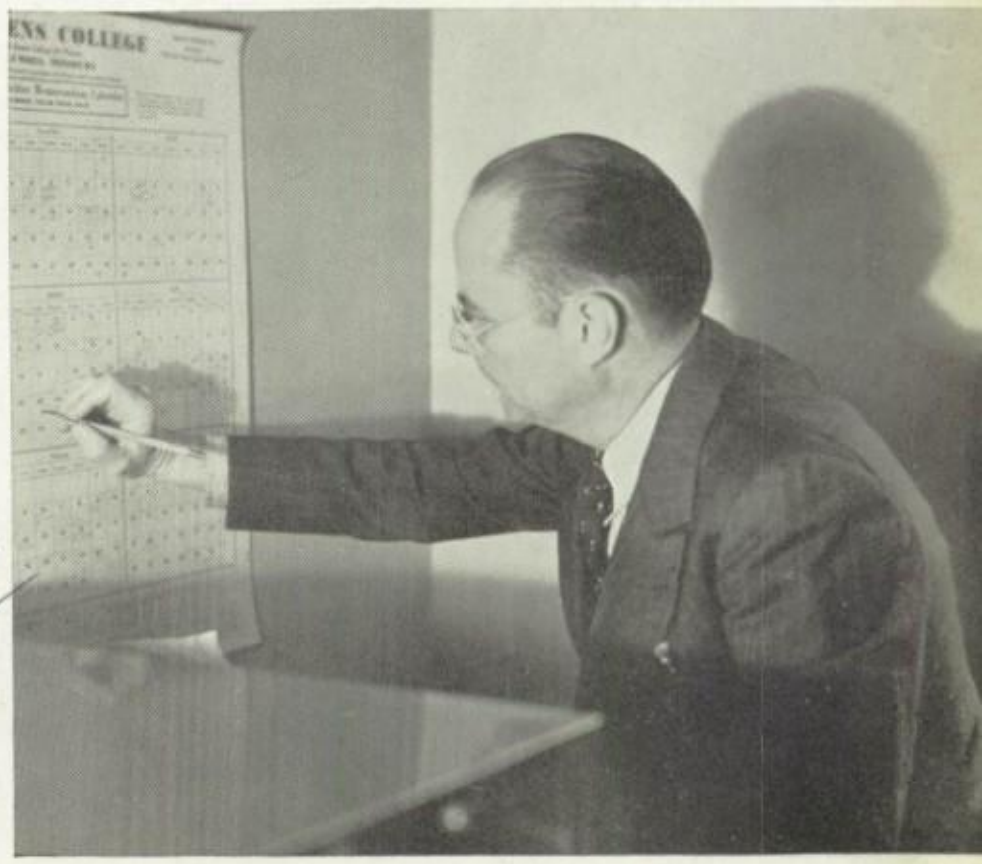
Your pal
Janie

Dr. Stoops, our superintendent of schools, in spite of numerous responsibilities, has always shown a deep interest in the activities, both scholastic and athletic, of our Senior class.

Mr. Mutch, our principal, with his winning personality and fullest capacity to understand our problems, has been an excellent counselor, especially to those of us in the graduating class.

Mr. John Agger, assistant principal and manager of the Student Activity Plan, is an important figure in our school life. Mr. Agger, Physics teacher, is also a prominent member of the faculty.

John Agger



THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

A capable, public-spirited citizen can render no greater service to his community than to serve on the Board of Education. This country is credited with having the best public schools in all the world. This is due largely to the fact that men with vision are willing to render unselfish service to the youth of their community by helping to secure capable teachers, adequate school buildings, and modern instructional facilities.

This city is fortunate in having men of this type serving on its Board of Education. Oldest in length of service are George B. Kendall, who has served for nine consecutive years as President, and Lawrence Oxley, who has served for the same time as Chairman of the Instruction Committee.

Recently death cut short the able services of Charles Ray Gruny who had been active on the Board of Education for the past seven years. His judgment was respected by his colleagues, and his integrity was unquestioned. His keen mind and legal training were invaluable in the consideration of difficult school problems. The Crimson J points with pride to Mr. Gruny's record as a splendid example of clean living and devoted service to the democratic way of life. In his passing the schools of Jacksonville have lost one of their ablest and most devoted friends.

Left to right: Mr. Ralph Hutchison, Mr. Fred Bailey, Mr. S. M. Foley, Mr. John Baird, Mr. C. R. Gruny, Mr. M. C. Reynolds, Mr. George B. Kendall, Dr. R. O. Stoops, Mr. L. T. Oxley, Dr. S. N. Clark, Mr. Fred Hopper, Mr. J. Larson

THE BOARD OF CONTROL

The Board of Control, as established in 1932 by the Board of Education, is unique in its organization and represents the interests and best judgments of all who are concerned with the development of student activities within the high school. Policies are established, student organization budgets considered, and the control of funds of student organizations supervised by the Board of Control.

The present membership is: Frank Robinson, President, representing the alumni of the high school; Ralph Hutchison, member of the Board of Education; Dr. R. O. Stoops, Superintendent of Public Schools; J. C. Mutch, Principal of Jacksonville High School; Frank Walker, Coach at Jacksonville High School. J. M. Hollowell is the appointed Secretary and Treasurer of Student Activities Funds in the absence of J. T. Taylor.

The appointment of Mr. F. A. Robinson, J. H. S. 1916, to the Board of Control in February, 1940, was necessary because of the death of Mr. Basil Sorrells, J. H. S. 1912. The Board of Control wishes publicly to express its appreciation of the valuable service and steadfast interest which Mr.Sorrells had shown as its president from March, 1938, to January, 1940.

THE CANDID CAMERAMAN ROVES . . .

Starting out at a football game, we saw Mr. Welty frowning as the Crimsons fought hard. At school H. Spencer was learning algebra from "Holly." At the game also were Messrs. Johnson and Loomis. On the stage Miss Richeson was directing a play. In class Miss Smith was going over her lesson. Mr. Hitchcock was unaware of the next, but Mr. Agger wasn't!

. . . AND ROVES SOME MORE

Miss Kamm let us "take" her in the lab, and Mr. West didn't mind either. "Pop" Hickle was mixing chemicals, while Miss Havenhill smiled for us. In the foods lab Miss Larimore was stirring plum puddings. Messrs. Moore and West were in front, and Mr. Lair posed—without any fish. Our last shots got Miss Harney writing and Miss George ready for a speed test.

Dear WILMA LEE

This SURE SOME FINE THING WRITTING ONE WHOLE PAPE.

I have a lot to say but I dont know how to begin. Well here goes.

We met "down by the old mill stream" or was it "17 + 18 down on Chestnutt Strut." I have done you dirt now & then, but why let a little thing like dirt keep you from coming back for more. God Bless America.

They say red hair is a sign of danger, it a lie why your as sweet as a daisy — no temper, — no fight just Gee. How's your huddie — huddie-ant me crazy.

Will it be a pleasure having you in all the of my classes a year and I hope we continue to have some next year.

We have a date but we havent set the time, but we will some time before we die. Thanks no. I do. But its bound to come to me go. Thank loads for what you wrote in my I don't believe a word But. But are swell am K Kid. Here's hoping you all the SUCCESS + HAPPINESS anyone can have. Good Luck and bye for I close till next year so long around.

Your most affectionate friend

BETTY JANE ANDERSON
Flaming tresses and sunny smile,
Make us love her all the while.

JACK ANDREWS
When the hour is so near zero,
I turn out a football hero.

ALBERT WAYNE ARMITAGE
He has a calm look in his eye,
But even looks can tell a lie.

DONALD WAYNE ATKINSON
Quiet outside, quiet in school,
He keeps his head and keeps it cool.

MARY MARGARET ATOR
Her pleasing smile and winning way,
Will remain in our hearts for many a day.

LUCILLE MILDRED AULL
Always happy, always gay,
She is laughing the live-long day.

FRANCES LORRENE BAKER
A smile for all, a welcome glad,
A jovial coaxing way she had.

MARY ELIZABETH BANCROFT
"Mischief" is her middle name,
She thinks life is just a game.

LEE BAPTIST
Your goal is high, your aim is true,
We hope success will come to you.

VIOLET MAUD BAPTIST
A friendly girl you like to know,
Her hair is always curled just so.

CHARLOTTE BARBER
Her friendship we will always treasure,
For knowing her has been a pleasure.

LEO L. BEERUP
I may not be a blonde with curls,
But I say, "Don't rush me, girls."

Ag classes are his pride and joy,
A jolly farmer is this boy.

LLOYD BOURN
He has a very clever line,
And makes the girls think he's divine.

RUTH ELEANOR BOURN
She possesses the best in domestic art,
She knows the way to a strong man's heart.

O. CARL BRECKON
A farmer boy with cows and swine,
But watch out, girls, he's got a line.

MARGUERITE HELEN BROWN
Soft blue eyes and stature tall,
A friend to one, a friend to all.

MARJORIE LUCILLE BROWN
A happier maid you'll never see,
For many and many a smile has she.

FRANCIS MARTIN BROWNLOW
A blond will satisfy this boy,
If she's from Springfield, Illinois.

GEORGIA BURMEISTER
She is happy, she is wise;
In future days her name will rise.

DOROTHY PAULINE BUTLER
A good industrious friend is she,
A truer friend could never be.

SAM BUTLER
I've a smile, and soft brown hair,
Yet the girls don't know I'm there.

ROBERT HARLAN CALDWELL
Irish eyes are quite O. K.,
Especially when on Betty Rae.

No midnight oil need I to burn,
For I've nothing more to learn.

EMMA ALICE DARR
She's very quiet but that doesn't matter,
Her manners speak louder than a lot of chatter.

SARAH ELIZABETH DAVIS
She doesn't say much but that's very well,
She knows a lot she doesn't tell.

ERNEST DORLAND DeFRATES
I love to tease those lovely girls,
And watch them toss their pretty curls.

BETTY JANE DENNEY
Dancing is her great delight,
She likes to do it every night.

RUTH DENNEY
If you'll notice, I'm a treat,
Short and sweet and hard to beat.

JACOB DeORNELLOS
I have a love for sleep 'tis true,
My wants for wo:k are very few.

TOM JOSEPH DICKMAN
I am a wild and woolly lad,
And definitely motor mad.

Silence is a virtue known by few,
In noble thoughts I'll equal you.

JOHN FAUGUST
Happy-go-lucky, fair and free,
There is nothing to bother me.

JAMES D. FENNESSEY
He is a lad both brave and bold,
Who seldom does what he is told.

DOROTHY HELEN FERNANDES
Cast away sorrow, sing away care,
And you'll forever find happiness there.

FRANCES EILEEN FISHER
Her golden voice, a happy smile,
So many friends are worth the while.

These lovely maidens make me dizzy,
To follow them all just keeps me busy.

LUCY ELAINE JEWSBURY
A lovely lady, with lovely thought,
And I'm afraid that Wayne is caught.

JIM ELLIOTT JOHNSTON
Inches seldom measure a man,
Why, take a squint at Napolean.

JOHN PAUL JOHNSON
Buddy is a popular sheik,
When he comes round the girls just shriek.

WILLIAM S. JONES
His friends are many, his foes are few,
For this square lad is really true.

EILEEN KEHL
Always a smile, a happy heart,
Forever ready to do her part.

GEORGE KELLY
(Not Graduating)

WARRINGTON KENT
A candid camera fiend is he,
Whose many snaps fill us with glee,

CARL ROSS KILLEBREW
He thinks that study's boring,
He'd rather have a maid adoring.

ORVILLE DEAN KERSHAW
A carnival on a bright spring night,
And rain and formals, such a plight.

ANGELA ROSE KILLAM
A lovely girl with heart of gold,
Memories of her will ne'er grow old.

ROBERT EARL KNOWLES
A quick scratch, a clever note,
And in the Herald we see what he wrote.

LUCILLE KUMLE
I may be just a farmer lass,
But I know tricks you'd never guess.

PHYLLIS JUNE KUMLE
Her fingers so nimble fly over the keys,
And shorthand, too, she takes in a breeze.

HELEN FRANCES LAIR
A gentle maiden forever good,
Who loves to walk in the Underwood.

MARY MARGARET LAIR
A quiet girl who'll never cause a row,
But she's got a hero, My Gosh! and Howe.

JAMES LEDBETTER
Mischief in his laughing eyes,
A paper wad and someone cries.

DOROTHY LEWIS
(Not Graduating)

DOROTHY JEAN LIVENGOOD
Her cute giggle and deep brown eyes,
Surely do attract those guys.

WILBUR WAYNE LONERGAN
He loves to slumber deep in class,
And watch a certain little lass.

JEAN ELIZABETH LOOMIS
Jean is tall and very dark,
And is always ready for a lark.

JOHN HOWARD LOOMIS
Another hero in the halls of fame,
Because of the way he played the game.

WARREN FREDERICK LUCAS
To paint and draw his whole life through,
Is what this lad has chosen to do.

JOAN ELIZABETH LUKEMAN
Her easy gait and swinging arm,
Combined with all her sparkling charm.

CYRIL LEE McCURLEY
There's mischief in his twinkling eye,
You'd better watch out when he goes by.

JOHN JACOB McFADDEN
You're short and plump and jolly too,
A merry guy we see in you.

★ SENIORS

GRACE IRENE McFARLAND
As perfect as a beautiful pearl,
A noble and a lovely girl.

ROBERT WILBUR MALLICOAT
His rolling voice goes down so deep,
It almost puts the school to sleep.

MYRNA MARIE MANSFIELD
Her voice is lovely like a bird,
And over all her voice is heard.

EARL FRANKLIN MARLMAN
A quiet lad but full of fun,
And many a friendship he has won.

ARTHUR MARTIN
He built his home in a woman's heart,
And now we hope they'll never part.

PHYLLIS LITER MARTIN
A very studious girl indeed,
She's noted for her working speed.

BOB MAYES
A swoop, a dribble down the floor,
Another two points for our score.

EULA BERNICE MEGGINSON
Her deep brown eyes so big and bright,
Are filled with love's enchanting light.

ARTHUR COOLEY MENSEL
A chubby hero bright and jolly,
Very much admired by Polly.

MIMI MABELLE MEYERS
She singeth merrily all day long,
She singeth each and every song.

JOHN WILLIAM MILLER
His limber fingers swiftly fly,
And soon he'll pass all records by.

PAULINE OLMSTEAD MILLER
This girl is full of fun and jolly,
And she can talk, just like a polly.

WILLIAM BAYARD MILLER
Take a note, take a letter,
Cause this Herald must be better.

GEORGE MOHN
Studies for me are such a trial,
I'd rather play upon my viol.

EDWARD LOUIS MOORE
Another scout who'll find his way,
To the greatest of fame in the coming day.

FRANCES LUCILLE NALL
True in heart, true in deed,
This will always be her creed.

MARGE ANN NEFF
Of all the guys to turn my head,
And then I saw a man named "Red".

CLARA BENTON NELMS
Soft blue silk, a priceless pearl,
Will always remind us of this gi.l.

RUBY LUCILLE NEWBERRY
A clever girl we're proud to know,
And she makes music with fiddle and bow.

ROBERT NEWPORT
Tall, dark and handsome, so they say,
Together with a winning way.

DOUGLASS NORVELL
To toot and toot till day is nigh,
He'll swing down low and then up high.

LAWRENCE NUNES
His little Ford goes up and down,
Speeding all around the town.

EUGENIA E. NUNES
At basketball she is a shark,
Her score is high, and her hair is dark.

ETHEL IDA OBERJUERGE
Her words are few and far between,
But never a kinder girl was seen.

CLYDE ODAFFER
If this small lad could have his way,
He'd do nothing but sleep all day.

MARCY WOODS OSBORNE
An architect someday he'll be,
Planning homes for you and me.

BAYARD E. OXTOBY
In spite of all the learned have said,
I hold my opinions within my head.

MAYNARD PENNELL
"A little nonsense now and then,
Is relished by the best of men."

KAY PHILLIPS
(Not Graduating)

ROBERT EDWARD PINE
Some folks when born were given names,
Fortunately I was given brains.

WILLIAM PLUNK
I dance through life without a care,
Dancing with all the ladies fair.

WILLIAM ALLEN POSTLEY
He's not dead; he only seemeth,
For while in school he only dreameth.

BETTY RAE RAGAN
A gracious leader straight and true!
Oh, Betty Rae, our thanks to you!

WILLIAM ORLANDO RANDALL
I have pondered long, you see,
Tell me why all girls like me.

DENBY ANDERTON RANSON
(Not Graduating)

ANNA LOUISE RATAICHAK
A happy smile, a twinkling eye,
I think these two will get her by.

ALICE ISABEL REED
Oh, Charlie! Oh, Charlie! Oh, Charlie! Oh!
Alice is in love with you, and you ought to know.

MARTHA JANE REEVE
Her whispering voice is just so low,
Someday she'll scream and then we'll know.

JUSTINE RICE
Justine can never be replaced,
She's noted for her charm and grace.

ALICE ILENE RICKS
There never was a minute,
That Lowell wasn't in it.

HOBART FRED RIGG
A cheerful boy, a real pal,
And yet he just can't keep a gal.

IRMA ROACH
Saying little she is wise,
For she is great though not in size.

RUTH ROACH
Her happy smile is always near,
Brightening corners here and there.

ROBERT A. ROBINSON
To study is a waste of time,
To play, to play—is just sublime.

MYRON ROBINSON
(Not Graduating)

CECIL ROY ROBSON
I'm just a bashful boy, you see,
No wonder the girls don't notice me.

JOSEPH AUGUST ROY
Great brains were given to this boy,
And Oxley is his pride and joy.

BETTY ANN RUBLE
Steady and willing, fine things for a girl,
Soon will put the gents in a whirl.

NELSON CHARLES SANDERS
A very friendly boy is he,
His clever jokes fill us with glee.

MELVIN CURTIS SAVILLE
He'll toot his horn with all his might,
And make us swing from morn to night.

JEAN EVELYN SCHOENFELD
A smile, a laugh, a sigh,
When these blond heroes pass me by.

GWENDOLYN MARIE SCHWAB
Just give her a while to catch the joke,
For this fair maid is an English bloke.

DOROTHY IRENE SCOTT
So quiet and sedate a lass,
We hardly know that she's in class.

DALLAS FROGGE SEXTON
They say that silence is made of pure gold,
Yet he thinks this story has now grown old.

FRANCES L. SHIBE
Always jolly, always kind,
She's the sort we like to find.

LOELLA MARIE SLOAN
A cute little lassie,
Who's really quite classy.

HELEN FERN SMITH
Blessed are they who have nothing to say,
For they'll be remembered another day.

PAUL LOUIS SMITH
A quiet lad won't cause a row,
But if he has a chance, Gee! Wow!

WALLACE SMITH
It may be his smile or because he's tall,
But the girls flock 'round him one and all.

DONALD SNYDER
Though he's not known so very well,
As a baseball player we think he's swell.

BASIL BAUMANN SORRELLS
He likes to chat with the girls I know,
'Tis the way with men; they're always so.

FLOYD EUGENE SORRILL
A mother's pride, a father's joy,
A great big rollicking, bouncing boy.

HAROLD SPENCER
He hides behind the bushes and the trees,
To take all kinds of pictures while we are ill at ease.

MARY MARGARET SPENCER
Her flying pen soon sketches out,
A picture good, without a doubt.

OTTO SPIETH
"Love 'em, leave 'em" is my motto,
Such brave words were said by Otto.

MAYNARD STANDLEY
Those who now from studies flee,
Will sure live long and merrily.

JACK STEVENSON
I am never in a hurry,
At times Jean can make me scurry.

ANITA LOUISE STEWART
Soft blue eyes and flaxen hair,
Portrait of a lady fair.

GEORGE MARCUS STRAWN
He's small, a shy and bashful youth,
He seldom talks, and that's the truth.

ELEANOR LORENE STROWMATT
A quiet tongue, a head that's wise,
Her name in our memory will ever rise.

EARL SULLIVAN
(Not Graduating)

BOB R. SURYK
A handsome lad who is quite tall,
And he is certainly liked by all.

ROBERT H. SUTER
A little lad about five feet tall,
But he carries around a bag of tricks.

JIM SWAIN
A very funny lad is he,
For he is scared of girls, you see.

BILLY A. TAYLOR
To study is a waste of time,
To sleep and play is really fine.

PHIL A. TAYLOR
I could be better if I would,
But it's no fun just being good.

RUSSELL NORTON TAYLOR
I am a senior now at last,
I wonder how long my dream will last.

MARGARET MAY TROUTMAN
A loyal member of the band,
As a musician we think she's grand.

EARL JUNIOR UNDERBRINK
A handsome guy in a hero's part,
But Lukie found his wandering heart.

DANIEL PAUL VANDERHORST
Life's too short to waste on books,
Where's the line and old fish hooks?

CLYDE VASCONCELLOS
He goes out on the field to fight,
Rolling up scores for the Red and White.

ARTHUR J. VORHES
A flash, a whiz, a friendly shout,
You'll know he's on his paper route.

GEORGE WAYNE WALKER
He loves to study best of all,
Both in the classroom and the hall.

RACHELL ALLINE WATSON
What'ere she does, she does it well,
A thoughtful maiden we can tell.

E. ROBERT WEAVER
A dribble, a dash, a score,
And we are champions once more.

ROY LESTER WEBB
I love to study instead of play,
I might be President some day.

ELGIN HERCHEL WELLS
Cupid shot an arrow and hit his heart,
Now he's got a lady to help him in the part.

HELEN WHITAKER
The little giggle that she gives,
Shows the happy life she lives.

CHARLES JUNIOR WHITE
Some like shows and cars with speed,
But I am satisfied with Reed.

JAMES A. WHITE
No lass will ever turn my mind,
Unless she first my heart will find.

JAMES M. WHITE
He studies hard from morn 'till late,
And in the spring he'll graduate.

BOB JERRY WILCOXEN
To be a Boy Scout and hike,
Is just the kind of life I like.

CLARIBEL WILDAY
Dates are certainly her favorite fruit,
Especially with some handsome brute.

JANET KATHRYN WILLIAMS
A tall and stately maid is she,
A smile for you, a smile for me.

MARY FLORENCE WINTERS
To play a prank is lots of fun,
But always do be sure to run.

WILLIAM FRANK WINTERS
It takes a wise man to act the fool,
What's the reason for going to school?

LOUISE WOLKE
Her fingers fly across the keys,
Doing so with greatest ease.

RICHARD C. WOODS
Another camera menace to beware,
He clicks a picture when we're unaware.

DEANE WRIGHT
Goodness and I just do not mix,
'Cause I just know too many tricks.

JUNIOR CLASS

The Junior Class, ably guided by Miss Perbix, started the new school year with a campaign for the election of officers. When the final ballots were counted, the officials chosen to guide the class another year were as follows: Curtis Schillerstrom, President; Dick Lane, Vice-President; Janie Frank, Secretary; and Carol Coultas, Treasurer.

A very indispensable body to the school, the Junior Council, met and elected the following officers: Janie Frank, President; Harris Rowe, Vice-President; and Porter Capps, Secretary. The Junior Council has been active in attempting to regulate traffic.

A very entertaining program consisting of two one-act plays, "Vengeance Heights" and "Love in Bloom," was presented to the assembly on January 12. The leads were taken by Beth Robinson, Betty Wegehoft, Martha Bayless, Bob McNeil, and William Sullivan.

The main event of the year was one of the most picturesque and cleverly planned Junior-Senior Proms ever held. We give them a vote of thanks for such a lovely send-off and wish them the best of luck in their Senior year.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

The Sophomore Class opened the year by the election of the following class officers: George Green, President; Mac Pine, Vice-President; Nancy Hughes, Secretary; and Marjorie Zahn, Treasurer.

Under the able direction of the class dean, Mr. May, a very excellent group of class programs was presented in the Sophomore assembly which met in the auditorium Tuesday afternoons. Each week the program was presented by a different group, which was arranged through the individual home rooms. The programs have been both of the instructive and entertaining types, and have disclosed some real talent.

In October the class played host to the Freshman Class, and the party was a huge success; again in January another party was given, and the fun was shared with the Freshmen. Then in February the Sophs were honored guests of the Freshman class at a very joyous Valentine Party.

The class has made its Sophomore year a very interesting and progressive one. All are looking forward to their future years and hope that they may have as much success as they have had in the past.

FRESHMAN CLASS

"Oh! Gee! Where's 212?" "Pardon, I'm in a hurry." "Gee, I'm late!" And again we have within our midst the amusing yet delightful little Freshies. At first we wondered whether or not we could tolerate such foolishness, but at last to our relief and satisfaction they calmed down and by the second semester they were truly one of us.

In a very business-like manner they elected their class officers. They were as follows: Dick Cruzan, President; Katherine Baker, Vice-President; Marietta Wall, Secretary; and Jackie Wiant, Treasurer. The class is under the very able leadership of Mr. Moore.

In October the class was entertained royally by the Sophomores, and so dressed up in their best bibs and tuckers, they all enjoyed a delightful evening of games and dancing.

In February the class turned the tables and entertained the Sophomore Class at a delightful Valentine Party, which was a grand success. The decorations were carried out by hearts strung on red and white streamers. The class has made itself an asset to J. H. S., and we are all keeping an eye on them. Best of luck.

MID-SEMESTER FRESHMEN

The first of February saw twenty-one new freshmen in our corridors and classrooms. Entering high school at mid-year, it was difficult for the new members to become accustomed to their new routine, but with the co-operation of the student body they soon found their place in high school life.

Two members of this group were honored with a special award given at their certificating exercises. Bill DeFrates and Helen Wilding were the students chosen for the American Legion and Auxiliary awards. The two students were selected for outstanding characteristics of true leadership and scholarship.

"A Review of an Historic Year" was presented by seven members of the class in interesting talks, which showed careful study and special training in delivery. The topics that were discussed were: 1939's Place in History, The Second World War, The City of Flint Affair, America on Guard Against Propaganda, Seven Propaganda Guards, Vocational Choices, and Will There Be Work for Us.

We expect much from this group and hope that by the time they are seniors they will have become outstanding in many activities in the high school.

FORUM

The Forum, which has the distinction of being the oldest organization in Jacksonville High School, once more upheld its reputation as one of the most prominent clubs. Miss Leonhard, the adviser, again capably guided the members through a successful year.

The meetings of the Forum were held on the first, third, and fifth Wednesdays of each month. The programs of debates provided supplementary training for several new members of this year's debate team. The interesting programs of the first semester were planned by Ardeen Black, Keith Ragan, and Ruby Newberry; second semester programs were planned by Ralph Smith, Porter Capps, and Bill Phillips. These debates covered an unusually wide field of subjects including national, international, and school problems. A few representative examples of debate topics are "Resolved, a declaration of war should be made only by a direct vote of the people"; "Resolved, the president is justified in changing the date of Thanksgiving"; "Resolved, Leap Week should be made an annual affair in J. H. S."

In the fall the annual picnic was held for the purpose of initiating new members into the club. Another picnic was held in the spring before the close of school.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

The Home Economics Club, sponsored by Miss Edna Osborne and Miss Alice Larimore, had a very interesting and busy year. This club, one of the youngest in the school, was organized last year for the purpose of promoting interest in occupations of the home economics field. Forty-one girls who were enrolled in the home economics classes made up the club.

A "get acquainted meeting," held on October 3, started the year for the girls. At the next meeting the new members were initiated into the club. The meetings were held every two weeks throughout the year and included programs related to National Education Week, Thanksgiving, and hobbies, and knowing your school well. Just before Christmas vacation a party was held at which refreshments were served. Later in the year a tea was held for the members of the club.

In the spring the girls presented their outstanding program of the year, a style show. The members modeled clothes they had made during the year. The style show has been presented in the last two years in order to acquaint the girls of Jacksonville High School with the correct clothes for all occasions. A tea for the members' mothers was also held in the spring. The two advisers deserve much praise for the work they have done.

The Commercial Club, sponsored by the Commercial Department, strives to aid its members in making a success of a business career. It also tries to create high standards of business ethics and ideals in its members. The purpose of the programs presented at the meetings, which are held the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month, is to further these aims.

The programs of the Commercial Club consisted, for the most part, of outside speakers. The interesting talks given by these people gave the members a better understanding of business places in the city. During several club meetings the members visited the business houses as well as having a representative address them. Several programs were presented by members of the club. These various programs were arranged by a program committee made up of Mary Winters, acting as chairman, aided by Ruth Denney, Lucille Kumle, and Loella Sloan.

Aside from its regular meetings the Commercial Club also had several social events during the course of the year. A Christmas party, a spring picnic, and a Commercial Club Banquet were the most outstanding of these social gatherings. A "George Washington" assembly program was also sponsored by the club. Miss George, who supervises the club, deserves much credit.

The Hi-Y Club is the High School Y. M. C. A. Club. It met each Thursday. On alternate weeks supper meetings were held; the other weeks the meetings were after school in the Y. M. C. A. office. Supper meetings were held in the High School Cafeteria and in the churches. An outside speaker was usually heard at these meetings, while informal discussions and studies made up the program for the meeting at the "Y".

The Hi-Y Club is an international group with similar clubs in many countries of the world. Its purpose is "To create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character."

The Hi-Y and Tri-Y cooperate each year in securing money and food from the student body to make up a large number of Christmas baskets for needy families. At Christmas the Hi-Y sponsored an all-school dance. The club also sponsored a basketball league of high school boys.

Among its special activities are inter-club meetings with the Springfield Hi-Y Club and cooperation in the State Older Boys' Conference, in the Camp Seymour Training Conference, and in vocational studies.

As its advisers the club had Mr .A. D. Hermann, secretary of the Jacksonville Y. M. C. A., and Mr. Paul West of the faculty.

TRI-Y CLUB

The purpose of the Tri-Y Club is to uphold the principles of clean living, clean speech, and clean sportsmanship among the girls. Under the guidance of Miss Ruyle, the club, which was exceptionally large this year, fulfilled these aims in every way.

The meetings, which consisted of a banquet and program following the banquet, were held every second and fourth Tuesday of the month. The programs were usually speeches of varied interest by local people. At the beginning of the year the annual picnic was held.

The Tri-Y again sponsored a campaign for Christmas baskets for the needy. The whole school cooperated with the club in this worth-while project, supplying enough for twenty-two baskets. The success of this drive was due largely to the efforts of Betty Ann Green and her committee.

On February 13 the Annual Alumni Banquet was held, the theme centering around St. Valentine's Day. There was a Fathers' Banquet in March and a Mother and Daughter Banquet in May. A formal spring dance, the closing social event of the year, was held at the Colonial Inn.

Two members, Ardeen Black and Margaret Foley, were sent to the Older Girls' Conference in Evanston.

DRAMATIC CLUB

Under the supervision of the new Dramatic Coach, Miss Richeson, the Dramatic Club had an unusually busy and enjoyable year. During the first semester the members studied pantomime and make-up. Also, the club was divided into three sections, each section working on a one-act play. A one-act Christmas play, "Dust of the Road", was presented in a school assembly. Bill Goebel, portraying Judas, and Fred Hapke, Joan Gilchrist, and Bill Alexander, in supporting roles, all gave excellent performances.

The one-act "laboratory" plays chosen by each section in the first semester were produced during the second semester. One purpose of these plays was to give everyone in the club a chance to participate in a production. They were also a method of testing the abilities of the members. Bill Goebel directed one of the plays, "Here Comes the Bride." One of the others, "His First Date," was directed by a MacMurray student teacher. The third play, "The Finger of God," by Percival Wilde, was directed by Miss Richeson. All three of these plays were well received by the audiences.

The club sponsored a St. Patrick's Day Dance for the members.

F. F. A.

The group of boys forming The Future Farmers of America in Jacksonville High School are a part of a great national organization. This organization has as its motto: "Learning to do, doing to learn, earning to live, and learning to serve." The F. F. A. strives to create an increased interest in agriculture and its problems and to produce better and more educated farmers in America.

There are several different ranks in this club; each member has the opportunity to work his way up to the highest rank. Initiation into the club qualifies the member for the first rank, "greenhand." After one year of service and good work on a project the "greenhand" receives the second rank of "Future Farmer." There were several boys who held the third rank of "Master Farmer." These boys were Jacob DeOrnellas, Carl Breckon, Russel Taylor, Hobart Rigg, Byron Strawn, Marcus Strawn, Pat Fox, George Hardy, Marvin Kleinschmidt, Gerald Vasconcellos, John Loomis, Charles Harris, Eugene Glossop. The highest rank is that of "State Farmer." There were no "State Farmers" in the club this year.

The "Ag" basketball team again won the championship in their league. Mr. Loomis deserves much credit for his work with the boys.

Twenty students enrolled in the architectural and advanced mechanical drawing classes made up the Engineers' Club of Jacksonville High School. Increasing the members' knowledge of new facts in the field of engineering was the purpose of this club.

At the meetings, which were held every two weeks, varied, interesting programs plannd by William Benson were presented. Some of these programs were talks by outsiders, followed by group discussions; others were presented by the members. Each member participated in two programs during the year. In addition to having these educational programs, the Engineers' Club also held a picnic in the fall and in the spring. This year a "Father and Son Banquet" was held along with an exhibition of the work done by the students. This gave the fathers an excellent opportunity to see what progress their sons had made during the year. Also, at the last of the year the club took a trip to the University of Illinois in order to go through the Engineering Department. This trip to Champaign is an annual affair.

The Engineers' Club had different officers for each semester. Wayne Walker served as President; Jim Jordan as Vice-President; and Rose Hayes as Secretary, during the second semester. Mr. May, as faculty adviser, deserves much credit.

Dear Vilma Lee

Well I just read what Ric wrote. Not bad. That sure said a plenty. He used one word I didn't care so much about. Ha! Ha!

All kidding aside. I have had plenty of good times with you this year and I hope they will continue on to next year. I guess I will see some of you this Summer. Lets go on plenty of picnic this year. You and Bob and other people ——. I do think he like you and I believe I can say that you feel the same with him. Remember the Saturday between May 18, 1940. Where were you between 9 and 12 o'clock. I know. You won't have to explain. You weren't doing [redacted] that well. He seemed to like it. Ha! Ha!

You are a sweet kid even if you do get mad once in a while and I have enjoyed running around ~~Tuba~~ with you. I will see you this summer and I hope you still go to school here next year.

POPULAR STUDENTS

It has been a tradition of Jacksonville High School to vote each year for the most popular senior boy and girl. In the past the entire school has entered into the election, but this year only the Juniors and Seniors voted.

Joan Lukeman has been chosen most popular girl in the Senior Class. This is no surprise to her classmates, for Joan has been a leader in many clubs and activities including Dramatic Club, Tri-Y, and the music clubs. Her striking appearance and poise along with her pleasant smile and friendly personality have all contributed to her popularity.

Bob Allan, the choice of his schoolmates as most popular boy, has long been prominent in his class. He was class president both in his Junior and Senior years and Sales Manager on the "J" Staff. His humorous smile, dynamic personality, and efficiency have won him many friends among students and faculty.

An unusual incident happened in the Senior Class of 1940. Helen Ingram and Jack Roy tied for the honor of valedictorian. Both students had a score of 4.9687, based on a system of 5 points for straight A's.

The Herald this year became a bi-weekly printed newspaper, the first issue—a four-column 9 x 12 page size—being distributed on September 15, 1939. It was very enthusiastically received by all the students.

And then came another change in its shape. On December 8 The Herald joined the ranks of the "streamlined" newspapers, changing its form of make-up. The page size was increased to five columns on a 12 x 14 sheet.

Under the guidance of its editor, William Miller, The Herald has been active in school affairs, sponsoring the contest for the Queen of the 1939 Homecoming and publishing a special two-color Christmas issue.

A new faculty advisory committee was appointed by Principal Mutch, consisting of Miss Moore, chairman; Miss Ruyle, Miss Leonhard, Miss Alkire, and Mr. Gunning. Mr. Kehl acted as the printing adviser.

CAMERA CLUB

After a year of inactivity the Camera Club, which was first organized two years ago, reorganized about the middle of this year. The activities of the club were under the supervision of Mr. John Agger. All the members benefited greatly from Mr. Agger's thorough knowledge and understanding of cameras and the principles of photography.

The purpose of the Camera Club is to teach the members the fundamental principles of photography: how to handle a camera, how to develop and print pictures, how to make enlargements, etc. Several interesting field trips were taken during the year. The club went to the Capitol Engraving Company, the Strawn Art Home, Spieth's Studio, and Ardeen Black's home, where colored movies were shown. One of the oddest and most interesting ideas of the year was a scavenger hunt with cameras. Each member drew a slip with a subject for a picture written on it. In two weeks they had to bring back the pictures assigned. The meetings were given over to discussions of enlarging and developing pictures, studying the members' different type cameras, and criticizing pictures. Methods of making holiday season cards with pictures were also discussed. A bulletin board of "snaps" taken of high school students was a regular feature of the Camera Club.

The main social event of the school year, the Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom, was held on April 19. The Junior class and its dean, Miss Norma Perbix, deserve much credit for the success of this event. The co-chairmen of the evening's activities were Harris Rowe and Opaline Bishop, with the following committee heads ably assisting: invitation and reception—Joyce Wise; publicity—Bob Bradney; tickets—Leo Heneghan; program—Porter Capps; banquet—Mary Bagale; dance—William Sullivan; check room—Bill Benson.

The banquet was held at the New Dunlap Hotel. Following the invocation given by Dick Lane, a lovely dinner was served. With Bob Bradney presiding as the "Maestro", appropriate toasts, each one bearing a song title, were given by the following speakers: "This Changing World"—Mr. Hickle; "To You"—Curtis Schillerstrom; "My Last Goodbye"—Bob Allan; "Way Back in 1939 A. D."—Porter Capps; "You'd Be Surprised"—Helen Carruthers; "All the Things You Are"—Mary Bagale; "Day In—Day Out"—William Sullivan; "Are You Having Any Fun?"—Don Caldwell; "Goody—Goodbye"—Jeanne Lynn.

The Prom was held from 9:00 to 12:00 at McClelland Hall, where a "Musical Treat for Dancing Feet" was presented by Carl Landrum's orchestra.

A new system was introduced into the musical clubs of Jacksonville High School this year. For the first time since the organization of these clubs the Juniors and Seniors met separately from the Freshmen and Sophomores. The two upper classes formed the Senior Boys' Glee Club and Treble Clef and the Senior Choir. The other two classes formed the Junior Clubs.

In spite of the fact that it was the first year that the Junior and Senior Choirs operated separately, the Junior Choir experienced a highly active year. The outstanding activity of its first year was the presentation of the well known fairy-tale opera, "Rumpelstiltskin." This production was received very well by both the student and public audiences.

Under the direction of Miss Hopper and Miss Holland the opera was excellently cast. The leads were well taken by the following: Rumpelstiltskin—Dick Cruzan; King—George Coraor; Jan, the miller—Keith Ragan; Sophia, the miller's daughter—Shirley Ann Green. The remainder of the Junior Choir made up the supporting cast. Mary Bagale, Ruth Jean Siegfried, Janie Frank, and Opaline Bishop directed the dances.

Assistant Treasurer.....GWEN SCHWAB

The activities of the Treble Clef ran almost parallel to those of the Boys' Glee Club, the two organizations working together on most of the productions of the year. The first project was the magazine sale. Funds raised by this sale were used in putting on programs throughout the year. The annual Treble Clef Tea was held in the fall. Former members of the club and the present members' mothers were invited to this program. The Treble Clef Girls also sang in the minstrel chorus and the Christmas Vesper service. On many occasions the girls sang at various clubs and gatherings in the city. Their programs were always thoroughly enjoyable.

Five girls—Joan Lukeman, Anna Louise Rataichak, Myrna Mansfield, Betty Ann Green, and Jean Livengood—had the honor of representing the Treble Clef in the State Chorus at Champaign.

Among the club's many activities the annual May Festival was outstanding. The program was put on in an entirely different manner this year, making the ceremony especially interesting. It was presented in the first week of May. An assembly program was also presented in the spring.

Treble Clef met on Monday and Wednesday under the direction of Miss Hopper.

BOYS' GLEE CLUB

Because of the dividing of the classes in the musical organizations this year the Senior Boys' Glee Club had a much smaller membership than in previous years. However, its activities this year covered as wide a range as in any other year.

Under the direction of Miss Hopper the Glee Club enjoyed a full and busy year. Four boys—Jack Roy, Earl Underbrink, Bill Goebel, and Bob Mallicoat—were selected to go to Champaign to sing in the All-State chorus which met on November 1, 2, 3. The club spent the first part of the year working on the chorus numbers for the annual minstrel. This is the second year that the musical organizations had charge of the minstrel choruses. After the minstrel, plans were begun for the Vesper service, which was presented first to the public and then to the school just before Christmas vacation. The service was very impressive and well received by all.

The Glee Club presented an assembly program to the student body in the latter part of March. Included in this program were burlesques of several light opera scenes and selections and a preview of the coming May Festival. Later in the spring the Boys' Glee Club sang several numbers in the concert given with the May Festival.

B A N D

This year our J. H. S. band has been very successful and progressive. In the Armistice Day parade we saw them in their new uniforms for the first time, with Opaline Bishop as drum majorette. These splendid uniforms were purchased by proceeds from band concerts and other performances which the band has given.

The band has also helped a great deal in arousing school spirit at our football and basketball games as well as in our pep assemblies. During the year the band has also been called upon to participate in many civic parades and celebrations. The first band concert of the year was presented on December 12, one performance being given for the student assembly and one as an evening concert. On March 9 a band contest was held in Beardstown which included solo and ensemble events. The district band contest was later held on March 30. The band also sponsored a Band Festival in May.

This year the membership of the band has increased, numbering almost fifty. To their capable director, Mr. Carol Hitchcock, the band owes much of its success, as he has been yearly greatly improving and enlarging this organization. Each year he replenishes its membership with new students from Junior High and the grade schools.

ORCHESTRA

This year the High School Orchestra, under the able leadership of Carol Hitchcock, has undertaken advanced work for its programs and concerts. This was also the first year in which a member of the Orchestra received the honor of attending the All-State Orchestra in Champaign, Illinois. From the applications submitted William Sullivan was chosen to participate in this event. The Orchestra has taken part in several programs given by the high school, in addition to the joint concert which was presented with the Band near the close of the school year.

The personnel of this year's Orchestra is as follows: Violins—Mary Bentena, Mary Heaton, Russell Hembrough, Mary Irlam, William Sullivan, Ruby Newberry, Willard Prewitt, Junior Lamb, Virginia Maine; String Bass—George Mohn; Clarinets—Peggy Goodrich, Carolyn Hitte, Marcella Taylor; Alto—Edward Daniels; Flute—Betty Peters; Cornets—Donald Atkinson, Charles Wiegman; Trombone—Ben Lane; Piano—Carl Rieman; Drums—George Green.

The "Modernairs," a small orchestra composed of Ben Denney, manager, Carl Rieman, Charles Wiegman, George Mohn, Willard Prewitt, Bud Norbury, and Opaline Bishop, vocalist, has played for many of the school dances throughout the year and has been very popular and successful.

THE MINSTREL

The annual J. H. S. Minstrel was presented this year on the nights of November 21-22. Mr. Hollowell acted as interlocutor and directed the performance. Other faculty members were Miss Richeson, Miss Hopper, and Mr. Gunning.

For the first time, twelve end-men took part in the minstrel. Bill Randall, a veteran of last year's minstrel, and Warrington Kent, Maurice Driver, Bob Mallicoat, Tom Caldwell, Harris Rowe, Dick Lane, Jerry Cohen, George Coraor, Dick Cruzan, held the crowd in hilarious laughter throughout the evening.

The chorus was again made up of the Choral Clubs with Miss Hopper directing. Many specialty acts were featured: Richard Allan, Janie Frank, Mary Bagale, Porter Capps, Ruth Jean Siegfried, Jean Marie Cooper, Verla Admire, Janet Rempe, Ruth Vinson, Martha Bayless, Eleanor White, Vera Sue Cisne, Doris Jackson, Myrna, Junior, and Elsie Mansfield, Junior Underbrink, Frances Shibe, Jody Schildman, Mimi Meyers, Mary Bancroft, Betty Jane Conover, June Gill, Opaline Bishop, Norma Oberjuerge, Charles Weigman, Maurice Driver, and Bob Mallicoat.

A background representing city buildings was carried out in black and white.

Entire Cast in Gay and Colorful Costumes

RUMPELSTILTSKIN

The Junior Choir presented the opera "Rumpelstiltskin" on November 6-7. Rumpelstiltskin is the story of a dwarf who helps a would-be Queen in return for her first child. Later the dwarf gives her a chance to reclaim the child if she can tell him his name. Sophia's father, Jan, discovers the dwarf's name—Rumpelstiltskin. Miss Lena Mae Hopper directed the musical score and Miss Helen Holland, the dramatic work.

Christmas Spirit Expressed in Music

VESPERS

The Music Clubs presented the annual Christmas Vespers during the week December 10-17. An assembly for students was given on Thursday and the presentation was repeated on the following Sunday for the public.

The program consisted of many solo and group selections and chorus numbers. Jack Roy read the Christmas Story from the Bible and the Junior Girls' Glee Club responded.

The Choir wore the usual black robes and white vests. They carried lighted candles in the processional and recessional. A highlight of the performance was the singing of the Hallelujah Chorus from the Messiah.

Miss Hopper capably conducted the affair. Mrs. Lois Eckman accompanied on the organ and Mary Frances Allen on the piano. An electric organ was graciously loaned for the Vespers by the Elks Club. The stage was beautifully decorated with lighted Christmas trees and flaming poinsettias.

The faculty committee was as follows: Miss Osborne, assisting with stage; Miss Richards, ushers; Miss Leonhard, tapers; and Miss Holland and Miss Groves, costumes.

MAY FESTIVAL

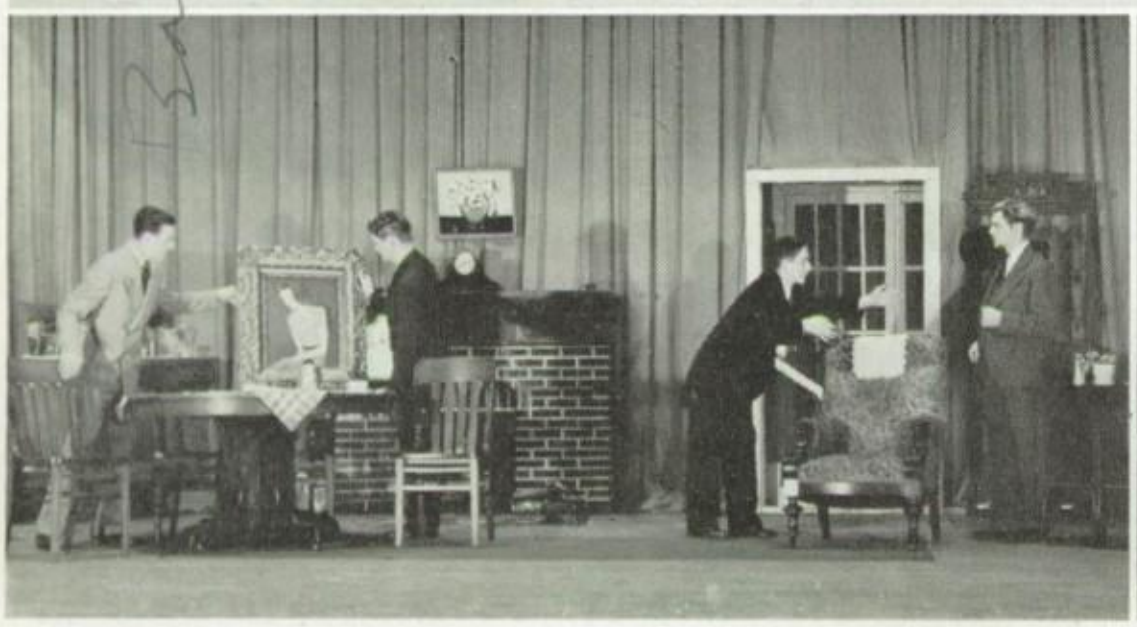
The May Festival was presented in an entirely different manner by Treble Clef and Boys' Glee Club for the public on the evening of May 2 and for the student body on the afternoon of May 3.

This May Festival has always been one of the loveliest events of the school year. This year the program was very informal but beautiful.

Anna Louise Rataichak was crowned Queen in a gay program of music and dances. Betty Ann Green was the Maid of Honor with Joan Lukeman First Maid; Jean Livengood Second Maid; Carol Coultas Crown-bearer. Other attendants were Gwen Schwab, Joan Gilchrist, Mimi Meyers, June Gill, Helen Ingram, Myrna Mansfield, Ardeen Black, Pauline Miller, Clara Ben Nelms, Margaret Foley, Ruth Grogan, Mary Bancroft, Lucy Jewsbury, Mary Ator, Ruby Newberry, Mary Margaret Spencer, Rachel Husted.

The Queen was attired in white with the first four girls dressed in various colors and the attendants dressed in similar pink formals.

The Maypole and Flower dances, which are always necessary to a successful May Festival, were presented, showing great talent. This event started May in a fine way and everyone was pleased with the Festival.



The play was under the excellent supervision of the director, Miss Frances Richeson, who was ably assisted by Miss Louise Sheppard, the class dean. Other members of the faculty and students helped on various committees.

The scene is in the home of Dr. Haggett, a simple country doctor, in a small Missouri town not far from St. Louis. The theme of the play is based on the unknown value of some paintings left at the doctor's house by Christopher Bean when he died. It was a mild surprise to Doctor Haggett and his family when an old friend of Bean's dropped in and paid Bean's old bill and only took away a couple of pictures as mementoes. It was a bigger surprise when another old friend of Bean's turned up on a similar errand, and the biggest surprise of all when a great New York art critic arrived to pay his respects to the memory of the dead artist. It was overwhelming when they learned that Christopher's daubs were worth a fortune, and how they scurried to find them. After a mad scramble hunting the pictures, they discover that Abby, the servant girl, was the wife of Chris Bean, and so they belong to her.

DEBATE TEAM

Since all of Jacksonville's veteran debaters graduated last year, this year's debate squad was made up entirely of inexperienced underclass men. These beginning debaters have really done quite well and will all be back again next year to win high honors. The topic for debate this year was, "Resolved, that the railroads should be owned by the government." The members of the A team taking the affirmative side of the question were Ralph Smith and George Coraor; Helen Patterson and Don Caldwell upheld the negative side. Keith Ragan and Bill Phillips made up the B affirmative team; Marie Gebhard and Curtis Schillerstrom composed the B negative team.

During the year the team attended practice debates at Galesburg, Lincoln, Webster Groves, Augustana, and Monmouth.

The district debate meet was held at MacMurray College on April 12. The team placed second in this tournament. This entitled them to attend the state meet at Champaign.

At the district N. F. L. meet, which was held in Jacksonville on April 19th and 20th, the debate team placed fourth, competing against such schools as Pekin, Lincoln, DuQuoin, and Monmouth.

Mr. Johnson has done an excellent job of coaching this year's splendid team.

Front row: Capps, Bagale, B. Ragan, Roy, B. Robinson, Hutchison, Patterson
Second row: Mr. Johnson, Goacher, H. Robinson, Coraor, Smith, Potter, Green, Maher, Miss Holland
Third row: K. Ragan, Hapke, Allan, Oxtoby, Fancher, Rowe, Goebel

SPEECH TEAM

The Speech Team consists of students who have participated in at least one of the National Forensic League or Illinois High School Speech League contests. Keach Johnson coached the extemporaneous speaking, and Miss Holland coached all other individual events. This has been an outstanding year for winning honors in speech work. In February about eighteen members of the team attended two successful contests in Charleston and DuQuoin.

In the Illinois Speech League, Jacksonville placed first in the sub-district meet which was held in Winchester April 2 and at the district meet at Jacksonville on April 13. Betty Rae Ragan, Ralph Smith, and Nancy Hughes won their way to the state contest at the University of Illinois.

A contest play, "A Game of Chess," was presented during the year by Bill Goebel, Jack Roy, Fred Hapke, and Jerry Cohen. The boys were given Class A rating at both the sub-district and district contests and later presented the play at the University of Illinois.

At the N. F. L. tournament, which was held at Jacksonville on April 19th and 20th, Jacksonville placed third. Betty Rae Ragan placed first in the verse reading finals of this contest. This qualified her to attend the National Meet at Terre Haute, Indiana.

TEMPUS FUGIT

SEPTEMBER

Dear Diary,

More fun. Here we are in school again. They kept us out for three whole months this summer. I was very much disappointed, but I guess the heat would have been too much for the teachers. This month everything is getting started, all the classes, clubs, and organizations. The Treble Clef girls invited their mothers to a tea on September 11, only they couldn't afford tea so they had punch. The next day there was a tiny, little guy in assembly, a Jiu Jitsu expert. He was assisted by three Japanese artists. Or were they artists? Or even Japanese? We wonder! For the more benighted of you I'd better add that by this I mean Jim Johnston, Dale Jackson, and Bob Jameson. Tonight I had a date with—wrong diary.

On the fifteenth we sure beat the tar out of Winchester in a football game, 6-0. On the same day the first issue of the Herald was issued. Laurels to the staff; it's better than ever this year, cause it's printed.

In assembly on the 19th, Keach Johnson gave us a lecture on how to ride a bicycle. On the 23rd a fellow spoke on how to win success. He looked pretty unsuccessful himself, if you ask me—but you didn't, so let's continue. The next day we won our second game from Virginia. Everyone celebrated by going to see the "Wizard of Oz." On the last day of this month, we, the "J" Staff, went to Decatur and painted the town red. Also, we played a tied game with Macomb—0-0.

OCTOBER

This month has seemed rather dead to me. After the flurry and excitement of school's starting last month, the air at J. H. S. has seemed rather stale. Or is that feet? However, a few interesting events have popped, and I'll tell you about these anyway. Better late than never—I mean —better something than nothing.

On the 3rd we had a world speaker—excuse me, that is—a world traveler who spoke in assembly. If you don't remember, boys, just ask the girls about that "tall, dark, and handsome". On the 5th and 6th, Thursday and Friday to you who like things to be stated specifically, we didn't have any school because the teachers ran up to Teachers' Institute in Champaign. Maybe they didn't run all the way. They probably walked through Springfield on account of the Chevies. You know how the billboards (curse them) read, "Watch out, the town is full of Chevrolets". Then on the 10th the "J" Staff gave a skit to advertise this master product that you are now reading. But then I could talk on the merit of this year's "J" all night and not do it half justice; so I'll stop right now and you can see for yourself. The next day, the 11th, we had an animal circus in Assembly. Some of the children on the front row got a special kick out of the monkeys. On the 13th the Treble Clef and Boys' Glee Club sponsored a Choral Hop to celebrate their success with the magazine campaign. We lost a game to Lincoln, the score 19-0. This happened on the 20th of October. On the 24th we had an assembly. I've forgotten what it was; so it couldn't have been much. Three days later, the 27th, we lost another game—Beardstown, 27-0. . . . What a dull month.

NOVEMBER

J. H. S. started this week off with a bang—I mean an air stewardess. Her name was Miss Gilroy, and she gave an interesting lecture in assembly (only coming from her it didn't sound at all like a lecture) on her duties and experience as a stewardess. The following Monday, the Junior Choir presented its operetta "Rumpelstilskin." On the 11th of November we played our last game of the football season, with I. S. D. Because they beat us—19-0—the less said about that the better; so we'll get on to the demonstration of television which took place in assembly on the 14th. We'll never forget how Martha Curry looks on the screen! "Rip Van Winkle" awakened long enough from his lethargy to come to J. H. S., but when he got here he went back to sleep. I refer here to John Ellis and Co. in assembly on the 20th of November. The annual minstrel wisecracked its way through two night performances—the 21st and 22nd. Whoops and three cheers—Thanksgiving Vacation—the 23rd and 24th this year, courtesy of F. D. R. On the 29th our last assembly program this month was presented. Four state auto men gave a debate in assembly on the question of whether the pedestrian or motorist is more to blame for accidents involving both.

DECEMBER

Ho hum! The beggar's son! I made that bit of wit up all by myself. How do you like it? Personally, I think it's lousy. But that's neither here nor there—but I'm here, so let's get on with the business at hand. On December 5th the basketball boys played Feitshans and were left holding the bag—I mean the ball. Well, it was our ball, wasn't it? In other words, we were beaten. Oh, well, one can't win all the time. During the month we played against Urbana, Carrollton, Beardstown, Athens, Decatur, and Lanphier. We lost some and won some and ended up by placing third in the Central Conference listing. The Herald issued a streamlined paper on the 8th. The only reason I mention this is because I was intimidated by the editor to do so, and I've found out that it doesn't pay to be on the wrong side of a newspaper. On the 12th, the high school band presented its annual concert. The band members were resplendent in new uniforms, or so that super-colossal paper—(in the words of the editor), the Herald, stated at the time. Miss Hopper presented the Choral Clubs in a Vesper of Christmas music on the 15th of December. In the morning of the 21st, some Swiss Bell Ringers rang their bells and sang several raucous oddities in assembly. On this afternoon a Christmas play, "Dust of the Road", was given by aspiring (probably perspiring too by the time they finished) J. H. S. actors. To conclude this memorable day—memorable because it was the last before a blissful vacation—there was a Christmas dance for couples only—the first of a series.

JANUARY

On the second day of this cold month we were dragged back to school after a luxurious, if short, vacation. Those little juniors gave two one-act plays in assembly on January 12th. They were, "On Vengeance Height", and, "Love in Bloom". Sullivan's impersonation of a professor just too, too popular with some women was just too, too hilarious. There was a lot of midnight oil (elbow grease, perhaps?) burned on the nights of January 18th and 19th preparatory to the semester examinations so gleefully participated in by the entire student body on the 19th and 20th. On January 23rd our basketball team was defeated by Rushville. The score was too appalling to even be mentioned here. The Ritz Trumpeteers, a quartet of third-rate variety exhibitionists, provided us with entertainment in assembly on January 24th. The first meeting of the Student Forum (sponsored by the Herald) was held in west study hall on Friday the 26th. Another assembly was "inflicted" on us on January 30th. This time it was a Vibra Harp and two entertainers. One of them (the entertainers) contorted his face while the other flirted. Quite a combination! We played a basektball game versus Winchester on the night of January 31. Say, I'm becoming quite addicted to this 'on the night of' business. I will have to stop before you get tired of reading and quit, or were you lucky enough not to have even started?

FEBRUARY

The basketball team finally won a game. Well, Rah! This memorable event occurred on the David Prince floor when J'ville beat Roodhouse 22-16. Three cheers for the team. The date is February 6. Also today we had another assembly. Jack Raymon did a rather poor job of trying to convince us to like "Our Reptile Friends." As far as I am concerned he can have them. The "vaudervillish" grandstand play put Raymon over. I'm glad he had something to do this. I hate to see an entertainer booed. We lost a same with I. S. D. on February 9th but made up for this loss by beating Havana on the 13th. In assembly on February 12th, we had a movie on "Abraham Lincoln". Walter Huston as Abe turned in a swell performance. Una Merkel as Ann Rutledge was—well, we'll let that go. On the 15th a Mr. Marshall entertained the assembly. I believe he is some sort of minister of propaganda for Australia. Just listening to him for an hour successfully convinced me that Australia is a Utopia, where one meets none of the ugly facts of life, where there is a fine selection of jobs for everyone, where everyone loves everyone else. On the evenings of February 22nd and February 23rd the double casts for "The Late Christopher Bean" got the Senior Play off their chests. After months of grueling long practicing and a week of letting beards grow, hair get grey, and tempers get hotter, the night finally arrived. Both casts did splendidly, as a result of the intensive training received at the hands of Misses Frances Richeson and Louise Sheppard. Bob Hewitt, a cowboy from Wyoming, gave the student body a very interesting lecture and series of colored slides about life in Wyoming on February 23rd in assembly.

MARCH

The "Herald" Editor's dream of a Leap Week has finally taken place this week—March 4th through the 8th. To climax a week of date-making by the girls and date-breaking by the boys, was a dance on the 8th. Much to his surprise and chagrin the above mentioned Editor got "nary a date" during the entire week. Guess he overrated his 'oomph'! On March 19th, J H. S. had a scientific assembly program entitled "Dancing Electrons". They even did a jitterbug. Oh My! School was dismissed for four days—March 22nd-March 25th. Easter Vacation was the occasion.

APRIL

I must confess, Dear Diary, that I am writing this account prior to the actual events hereafter to be recorded. This is unavoidable because the "J" must go to press in the latter part of February. Thanks to John Agger, I was able to procure a skeleton outline of the assemblies, etc., ahead of time. On April 8th the Sellers' Marionettes entertained the student body in assembly. Don't ask me what student's body. But I heard——! The faculty had to go to a teachers' convention in Springfield on April 12th. This afforded the students a grand opportunity to stay at home, or at the White Front, or somewhere else without getting caught by the truant "ossifer". The sophomores presented a play on the J. H. S. stage on April 17th. As this goes to press the title and cast haven't been decided upon as yet. Gee! Are my verb tenses becoming confused. But probably no one will ready this diary anyway, so I'll be safe from all condemnation, I hope! Where were you on the night of April 19th—between the hours of six and eight and nine and twelve? All school-spirited boys and girls were at the Junior-Senior Prom and Banquet. The juniors really did themselves proud this time. The banquet was at the Dunlap Hotel, and the Prom Dance was at the McClelland Hall of MacMurray College. April 26—Geoffrey O'Hara, composer and entertainer, instructed J. H. S. as to the "Fun and Philosophy of Music".

MAY

May 2—we say glass blowing in assembly. I might mention something about windows paining and beds springing, but I can hear you all groaning so I will refrain. The Treble Clef presented its annual May Festival in assembly on the third day of this month. It was quite cleverly and artistically arranged this year. On May 20th in assembly Jim Wilson told us all about his wild and woolly Africa. This was the last in a series of entertaining and educational assemblies offered to the pupils of J. H. S. by the Activity Ticket plan. The school year is fast slipping away, and the class of 1940 is soon to pass through the portals of knowledge, never more to enter except as visitors. A tear comes to the eye as the many wonderful experiences of four years in a grand high school flit across the memory. But enough of this sentimental nonsense. One would think that the class of '40 is indispensable to J. H. S., but there will always be other classes to take its place. Baccalaureate was on May 26th. It was so beautiful that I wish you could all have been there. Graduation exercises were held on May 31. This year's seniors were passed through the portals of know—oh, I said that once, didn't I? I must be getting old to repeat so often.

Goodbye, dear old J. H. S.

PUNY PUNS

Here we are at school again. Summers certainly go fast! Not MUTCH has happened this first week, but I understand we have an assembly next week on HOLLAND; not that we ALKIRE for things like that, but we're not AGGER'vated.

As a RUYLE, I don't HICKLE easily but I understand Mr. HOLLOWELL is GUNNING for me. I almost went WEST, but I'm no WALKER.

Now the final exams LOOMIS over us. Seems MOORE than we KAMM stand.

By GEORGE! Here it is MAY already. Time certainly is some HOPPER! Good 'EVANS, finals again! This GROVES disturbing.

Now the year is over; we DEEM ourselves graduated.

COACHES

FRANK WALKER

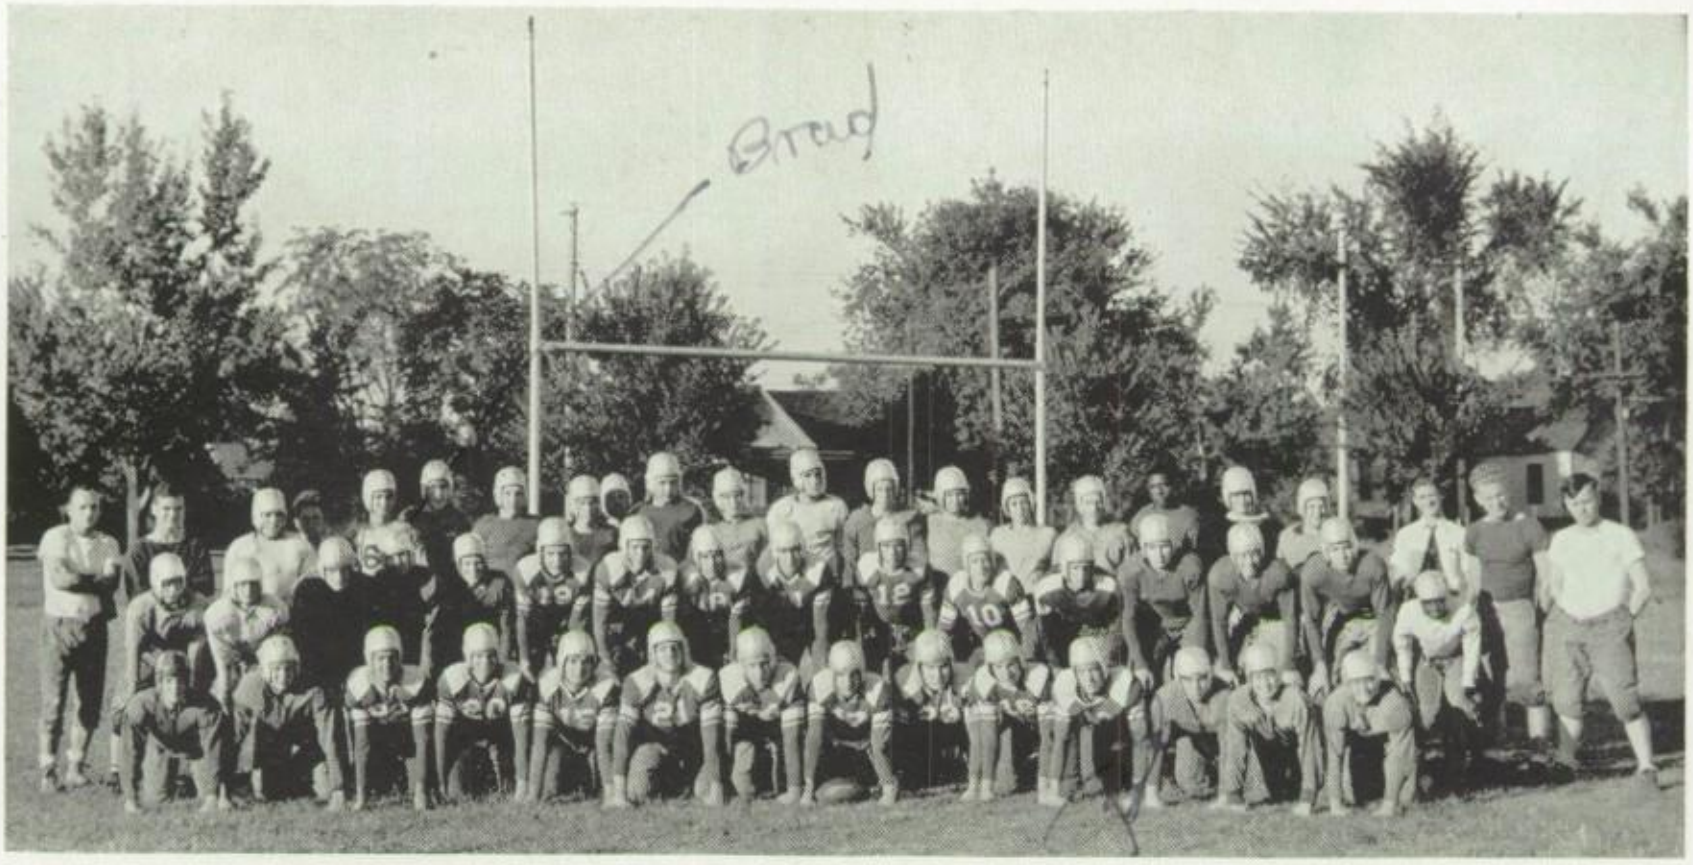
Coach Frank Walker hails from Urbana, Illinois. Having graduated from Urbana High, he attended the University there where he became a noted gridiron star. He came directly to Jacksonville High School where he pulled the Athletic Department out of a slump. In 1937 Coach Walker coached his football team to a Central Conference Championship and an undefeated season. He has been exceedingly successful during the last several years with both basketball and track teams as well as his football team.

RICHARD WELTY

Assistant Coach "Dick" Welty graduated from the Illinois State Normal in 1937. There he was active in both football and track. He deserves a great deal of credit for his faithful service as assistant coach of the major sports and coach of the Freshman-Sophomore basketball team.

GLEN HICKLE

Assistant Coach Glen Hickle has been serving J. H. S. for fourteen years. He graduated from Illinois Wesleyan where he was on the football team. He has been a great help in bringing the school's teams to their present high standing.



Front row: Webb, Graubner, B. Hudson, Stevenson, D. Jackson, J. Loomis, Gephart, Vasconcellos, Andrews, Caldwell, Sorrells, Birdsong, Walker, Holle

Second row: Summers, Ketner, Ranson, Bradney, Lynn, L. Johnson, Stringham, Nealon, D. Hudson, M. Johnson, Mayes, White, Cohen, Jordan, Acree, R. Johnson

FOOTBALL

The Jacksonville High School Crimsons are justly proud of their successful football season. In spite of a stiff schedule the Crimsons started the 1939 season with a bang, checking up four consecutive victories. During the last half of the season several of the players received injuries serious enough to cut down Crimson efficiency.

Perhaps the highlight of the season was the Crimson's victory over Canton's strong eleven. Another thrilling game was witnessed when the Crimsons met Lincoln, a team whose backfield was rated as one of the best in the state.

Captain Vasconcellos led his team to three victories, one tie, four defeats. The following boys were honored with football letters as awards for outstanding achievement: Vasconcellos (cap't.), Sorrells, Loomis, Andrews, Stevenson, Mayes, Caldwell, Anderson, Jackson, White, Gephart, D. Hudson, Nealon, Stringham, and M. Johnson.

The annual football banquet was held on November 15 with Coach Walker presiding as toastmaster. The banquet was sponsored by the mothers of the football players.

The following seniors will be greatly missed next year: Vasconcellos (cap't.), Sorrells, Caldwell, Andrews, Jackson, Loomis, Mayes, Stevenson, and White.

SENIOR GRID STARS

CLYDE VASCONCELLOS—In addition to being captain, "Horsie" made one of the strongest ends J. H. S. has had for several seasons.

JACK ANDREWS—We are proud to record that Jack received honorable mention on the All-State High School Football Team.

BASIL SORELLS—"Bas's" passing and punting have won for him an enviable position on the All-Conference Team.

BOB CALDWELL—Bob consistently plugged up that line when it was most needed.

JOHN LOOMIS—Big John, a 200-pound tackle, was one of the main spark plugs of this year's team.

BOB MAYES—Bob was a swell little field general and the brains of the outfit.

JACK STEVENSON—Jack's determination helped make him a valuable guard.

DALE JACKSON—Dale's last year as guard will leave a vacancy which will be hard to fill.

CHARLES WHITE—"Whitey" as quarterback did his best to make his team a real success.

Top to bottom: Basil Sorrells, Jr., Jack Nealon, Dale Hudson

VARSITY BASKETBALL

The Jacksonville High School basketball squad finished the '39-'40 season having won 13 games and lost 16. Although this record is not very impressive, the Crimson Cagers put the skids under many of the favorites. Coach Walker's boys went through an exceedingly tough schedule, meeting such teams as Decatur, Urbana, Quincy, and Lanphier.

Perhaps one of the most exciting games was the game with Bluffs in the Virginia Regional Tournament. The Crimson Cagers were nosed out in the last five seconds of play by the spirited Bluejays.

1939 BASKETBALL SCHEDULE

FRESHMAN-SOPHOMORE BASKETBALL

Coach "Dick" Welty has been exceedingly successful with his Freshman-Sophomore basketball teams. Last year his team won nineteen games and lost only five. Although this year's team was not quite as successful, they did very well in chalking up eleven victories against ten defeats. The young Crimsons defeated such strong cagers as Athens, Rushville, Illinois School for the Deaf, and Pittsfield.

The following boys have played in a majority of the games: Williams, Bradney, Mathews, Fry, Marx, Lynn, Young, Birdsong, and Reeves. Our future varsity squads will be made up of some of these boys.

1939 FRESHMAN-SOPHOMORE SCHEDULE

Murrayville	23	24	J. H. S.	Bluffs	19	20	J. H. S.

Kneeling: Ragan, King, Jackson, Johnson
Left to right: Coach Welty, Williams, Mathews, Marx, Birdsong, Ketner, Young, Reeve, Fry, Hudson, Bradney, Mgr. Scott

BASKETBALL INDIVIDUALS

Top Row: D. Hudson, Weaver, Underbrink, Fry

Bottom Rom: Walker, Mayes, B. Hudson, Stringham

Cheerleaders: Hayes, Barnes

EXCITING MOMENTS IN BASKETBALL

All of the boys go up for a high one . . . Stringham and Hudson get the tip . . . Basil in action . . . Underbrink takes a shot; is it good? . . . Hudson blocks one . . . keep your eyes on that ball, Bobby . . . in the center picture Taylor and Underbrink go up for a high one—Mayes and Sorrels look on . . . Hudson and Weaver close in on a Pittsfield boy . . . we wonder who won?

TRACK SQUAD

Front row, left to right: Reeve, Smith, Harney, Andrews, Jones, Ledbetter, Bland, Baptist, Crum, Ketner.

TRACK

The Jacksonville High School track team finished the 1939 season with a very high standing. The Crimsons began the season by placing third at the Winchester Invitational Tournament. Then the J'ville boys walloped Havana by a large margin. Meets were then held at I. S. D., Beardstown, and Taylorville. In the Central Conference meet at Beardstown, Jacksonville placed fourth. In the district meet at Taylorville, which was attended by Cap't. Charley Johnson, John Irlam, Jack Andrews, and Dee Frost, Johnson and Irlam qualified for the state meet which was held at Champaign. Irlam went to the meet but did not place.

The following boys were awarded major letters in track: Captain Charley Johnson, John Irlam, Dee Frost, and Jack Andrews.

Coach Walker has scheduled four meets for this spring.

GOLF

The Jacksonville High School golf team was composed of Captain Charles White, Basil Sorrells, Marcy Osborne, and Howard Reynolds.

At the first of the season, the Crimson golf team defeated Quincy in a practice match. Then they went to the district meet at Litchfield where they won the first place honors. The entire team journeyed on to the state meet at Peoria. J. H. S. placed fifth out of the entire thirty-six teams.

With ten boys turning out for the first practice, we expect the golf team to have a very successful season this year.

Front row, left to right: Reynolds, Jameson, Miller, Ketner
Back row, left to right: Osborne, Deutsch, Taylor, Summers, Fry, Steacy, and Coach Agger.

TENNIS

TENNIS

The Crimson tennis team has been very active this last year, having won all six scheduled matches. The first meet was held at Litchfield where the J'ville racqueteers made a clean sweep of all of their matches. Continuing on to the district tournament, they won the first place trophy. Weaver, Coultas, Lacey, Moxon, Findley, and Artz composed the team that went to the state tourney. Weaver proceeded to the second round before he was defeated. Coultas and Lacey were subdued by the state finalists.

Last fall the team made up of Weaver, Mac Pine, Bob Pine, Bradney, Cloud, and Marx tied Litchfield. These boys are looking forward to a very successful spring season.

G. A. A. PLAY DAY

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Under the capable direction and supervision of Miss Dorothy Whitaker the Girls' Athletic Association has been highly successful this year. At the beginning of the year the following were elected officers of the organization:

President.....ANNABELLE WILLIAMS
Vice President.....BEULAH BARBER
Secretary.....ISABELLE KIRKPATRICK
Treasurer.....ALINE EVANS

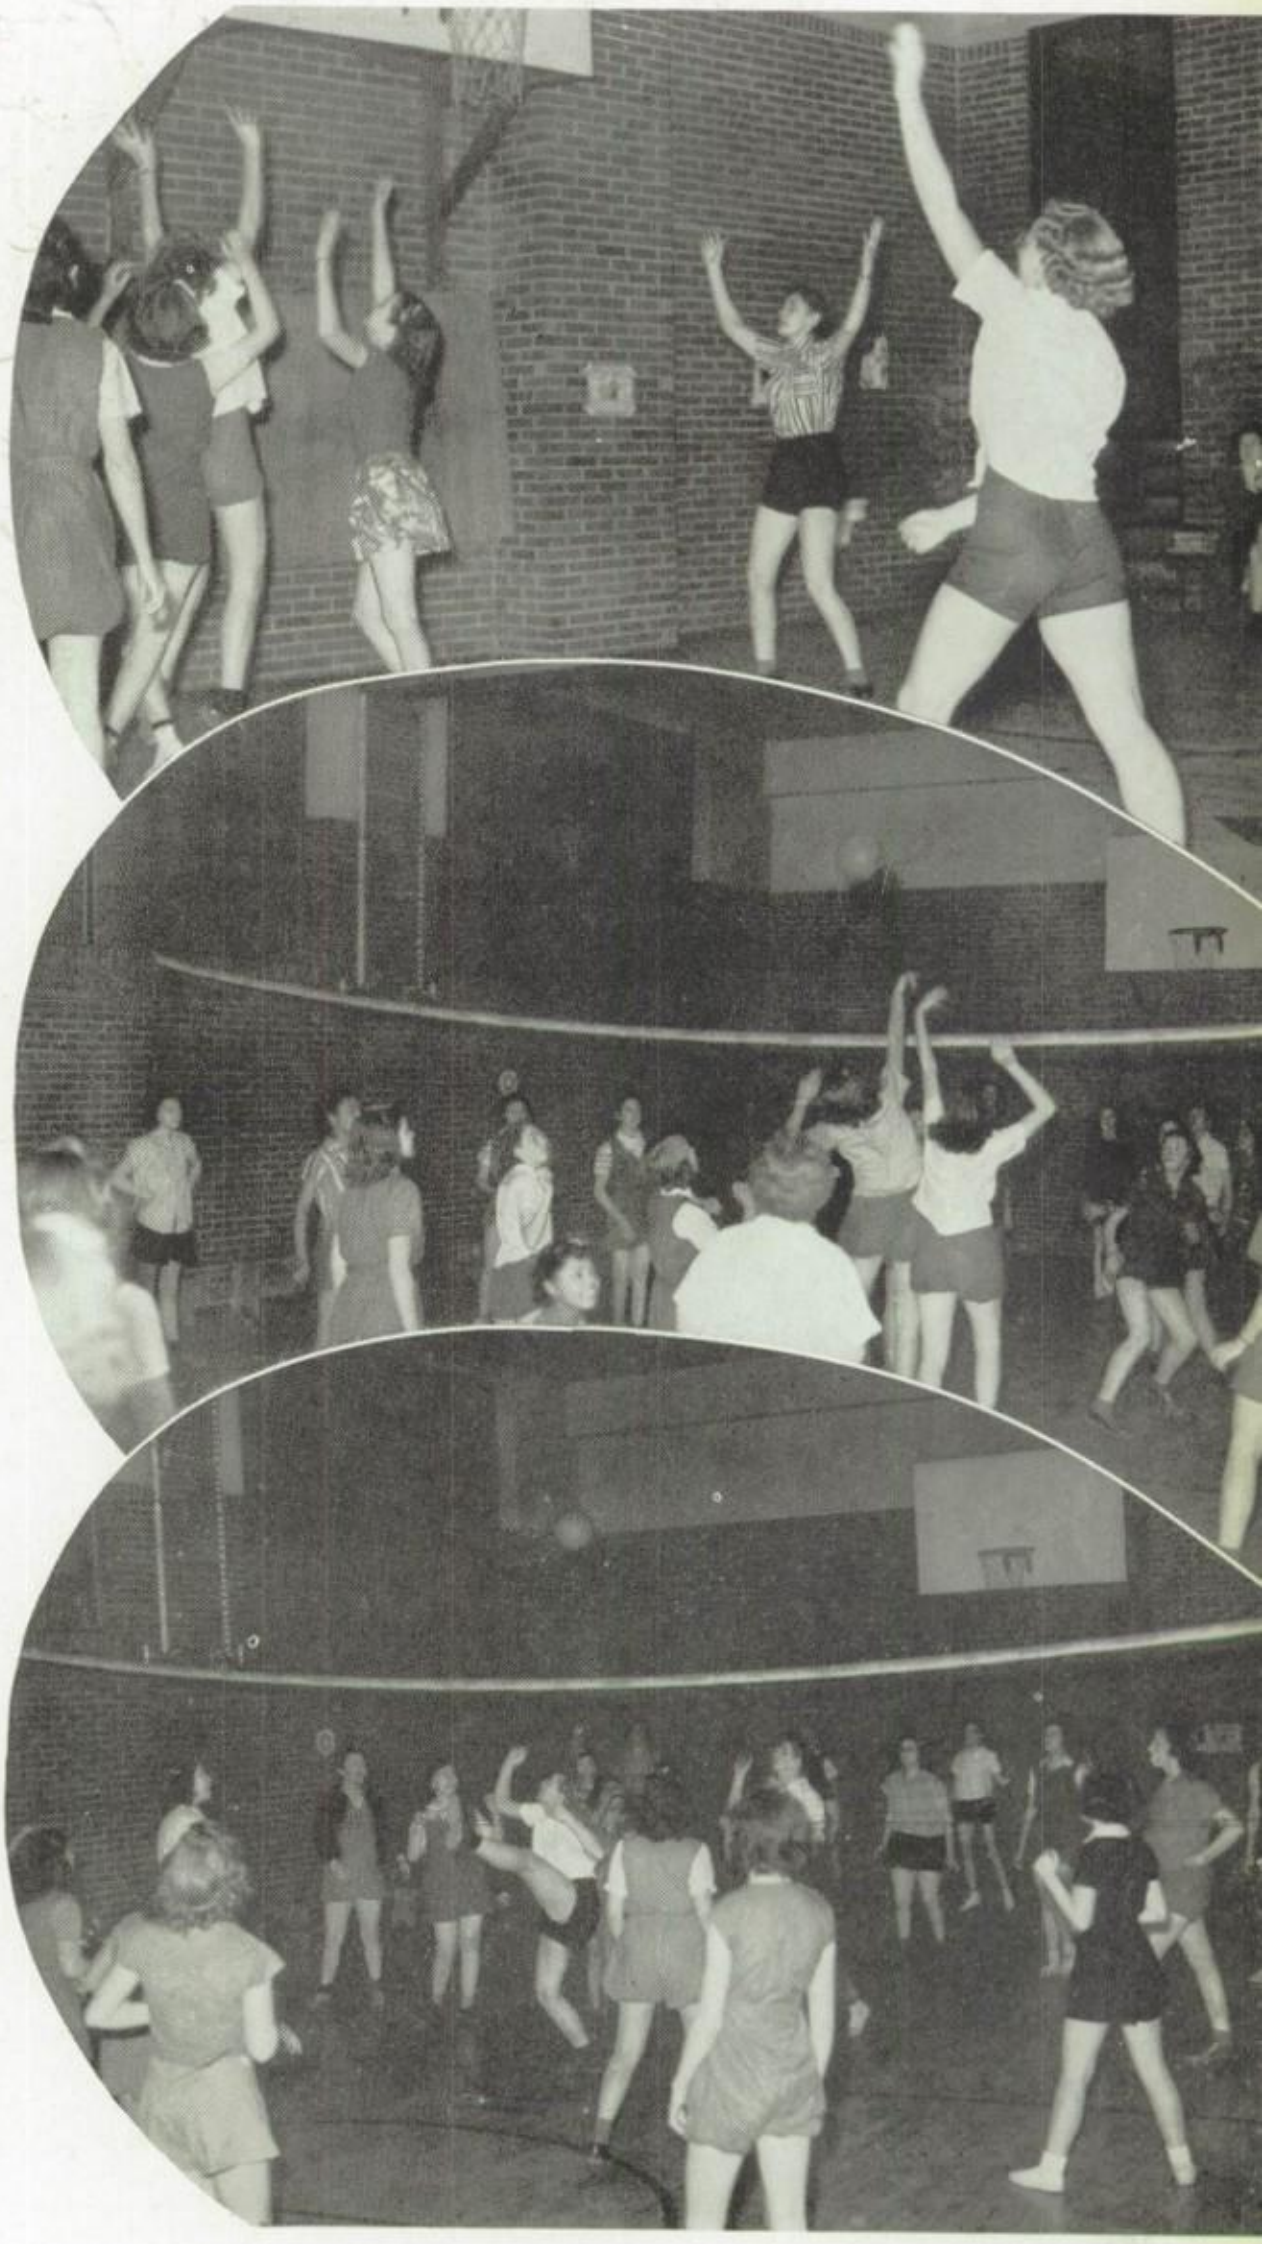
The meetings were held every Monday and Wednesday after school in the girls' gymnasium. After a short business meeting the girls occupied themselves by putting on various gymnastic demonstrations in the gym and on the playground.

The Girls' Athletic Association sponsored its annual play day on October 28. Several schools participated in these games, including Ashland, I. S. D., Petersburg, Winchester, and Jacksonville.

Besides the officers of the club Marjorie Redding and Becky Imboden were also given awards. These awards were given on a point basis for outstanding achievements. Two girls were chosen and attended the district camp at Lake Bloomington. These girls were chosen on the basis of merit and service to the club.

G. A. A.

Wotta basketball game . . . the score is tied at 12 to 12 . . . one minute to go . . . Williams takes a shot . . . it's good! . . . and the Girls Athletic Association wins. Wait a minute . . . now it's volleyball . . . Bertha does not seem very interested in the game, does she? . . . Wow! . . . there's plenty of action here.



Dear Wilma Lee.

Well, dear, another school year is closing - what a year !! Wow !!!! Remember our double date - some fun. How are you and Saucy getting along? I hope not like Wayne & I. You made a swell interpreter - if you know what I mean.

Best of luck.

Mary

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The patient cooperation of our printer, engraver, and photographer has been a great aid to the publication of this book.

Dear Wilma.

I am sick writing. I just happened to think I something else to say. Lisa Roberts, Craze Kelly, & I didn't even know she like him. I sure sounded like it in that note she wrote him they must get along really well. Just to look at me you wouldn't think she would like to do the things he likes to do. You know what I mean. Does he like her who decorated these men

Well I am really going this time. Never tell anything that happens on dates. Ha! Ha!

Notes on a love affair that was almost tragic!!!

Note I

Dear Miss ————,

I am going to ask a very big favor of you. I have had my eye on you for some time. As you know, the Football Dance is four weeks from next Friday night. Would you please consider going with me? Please!!! I would be very happy if you would. Please write a note back telling me your answer.

Anxiously yours,

Mr. ————, Jr.

P. S. Please say yes.

P. P. S. S. I'll call for you at 7:30.

Note II

Dear Mr. ————, Jr.

I received your little message. I want to tell you that I won't go with you. If you don't want me to go with you bad enough to ask me with your tongue instead of with your pencil, I have no intention of going.

Yours truly,

Miss ————

P. S. You may call for me at 8:00.

MESSENGER SERVICE

Little errands are always popping up at the wrong time and there is no time saver like a telephone.

Or maybe it's an emergency—advice from your doctor, service from your grocer, a date with your sweetheart, a business appointment with your client, moments when you can't waste time. The fastest, safest, and most economical way is to telephone.

Note XX

(Please excuse the lapse of so many notes; but I only picked the most interesting ones. By now our little love affair is well on its way.)

Dear ————,

Maybe I'm wrong, but I thought we were going steady. I don't care if you look at another boy, but when you actually are brazen to speak to him! That's the limit! And of all people to speak to, you would pick Him. I know you think I'm old fashioned, selfish, and stubborn, but after all, you are (or were) my girl!

Perhaps it would be better if we would cancel our Prom date. I know you would be much happier if you went with him, and you know I couldn't stand to see you unhappy. You're such a likeable person. Don't think for one minute that just because I'm not taking you to the Prom, I'll stay home. Not on your life. There are lots of girls dying to go with me.

Indignantly yours,

————, Jr.

Notes on a love affair that was almost tragic!!!

(Con't)

(If I remember correctly, the last note of our little love affair was a rather indignant little note from him. Let's see what she wrote back.)

Note XXI

Dear ————, Jr.,

Just who do you think you are? My boss? I can talk to anybody any time I want to, and you can't stop me. Maybe I would rather go to the Prom with him. At least he's not a stubborn fat head like you. You louse! I'll bet there isn't any girl dumb enough to like you. I was sure dumb to go with you, but I'm not dumb anymore.

Double indignantly yours,

———————

P. S. I could write a lot more, but I'm so mad I will probably tear the note up if I don't give it to you right now.

It seems that our lovely little love affair has hit a stumbling stone and has gone on the rocks. It's a pity! It's too, too sad to think about. It was so romantic!

Emporium Is "Symbol Of An Evolution"

Success of East State Street Store Reflects Consumer Demand for "Absolutely Desirable Fashion Merchandise" at Moderate Prices

What Emporium does, says, and sells is always closely watched by every fashion-conscious woman in this community, for it is thru this store that really a "little bit of New York and Paris" has been brought to the heart of Jacksonville. Notes on a love affair that was almost tragic!!!

(Con't)

(As I was saying, it's too bad for such a lovely love affair to end! Think what the outcome might be. "She" might not get to go to the Prom! What tragedy could be greater than that? "He" might have to stay home also. It's so sad. This sad ending will long be remembered. But wait! Here's some more notes.)

Note XXII

Darling,

I feel like a cad for saying all those horrid things to you. I feel terrible, rotten, and mad at myself. I can't stand having you mad at me. You didn't speak to me for one whole day! Please, dear, try to forget how mean I was. Try to forgive me for being so cross. Precious, you must go to the Prom with me. If you go with him, I'll die, I know I'll die. Please write a note of forgiveness. It would greatly ease the stabbing pain in my heart.

Pleadingly yours,

_____, Jr.

Loella Sloan had just gone to church with the family. After the opening hymn, "Jesus Lover of My Soul, Let Me to Thy Bosom Fly," Loella couldn't resist asking the person next to her what a Bosom Fly was.

"Suppose you had money," Peg McNeely said. "What would you do?"

Bill Deutsch threw out his chest, in all the glory of young manhood, "I'd travel!"

He felt her warm, young hand slide into his. When he looked up, she had gone. In his hand was a nickel!

Notes on a love affair that was almost tragic!!!

(Con't)

(It looks as if our love affair is back on the run again. What girl could resist such a pleading note? What girl could stand to be angry at such a romantic soul? Let's read her answer to his lovely epistle.)

Note XXIII

Dear Mr. ————, Jr.,

If you think you can call me all sorts of names one day and then make me unmad by a flowery note the next day you're very mistaken. I wouldn't forgive you for calling me "brazen" if you were the last soul on this earth.

Yours truly,

Miss ————.

P. S. About the Prom, I might consider going with you. Don't think for a minute that I couldn't get another date. I could have plenty of them, but I had already accepted yours.

P. P. S. S. Maybe I have been a little too harsh with you. Maybe, I might be able to forgive and forget.

Guy Winks, a hill-billy of the Ozarks, had wandered off into the woods and failed to return for supper, so young Janie was sent to look for him. She found him standing in the bushes.

"Gettin' dark, Guy," the tot ventured.

"Yep."

"Suppertime, Guy."

"Yep."

"Airn't ye hungry?"

"Yep."

"Wal, air ye comin' home?"

"Nope."

"Why ain't ye?"

Notes on a love affair that was almost tragic!!!

(Con't)

(Our little lady friend has had time now to consider forgiving and forgetting. I knew that that pleading note would get her sooner or later. Just look at what she wrote back to him.)

Note XXIV

Sweetheart,

I'm sorry I wrote such an awful note to you yesterday. I don't know what made me do such a thing. Of course, I'll go to the Prom with you. Do you think I could bear to go with anyone else? I'm so sorry I was so mean to you. Please let's call a truce and never fight again.

Love,

P. S. I can hardly wait for the Prom. I'm so glad you get to use your dad's new Packard.

(Ah! Isn't that romantic? Everything is all right now. She's never going to even look at another boy and he's not going to get mad when she does. The love affair is off the rocks! Let's leave it before it goes back.)

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

Whereas we have hereby arrived at the said stage of our existence when we must willingly or otherwise leave this school; it seems meet that we, the Senior Class of Jacksonville High School, should, therefore, draw up this document, our last will and testament.

Firstly, we leave Jacksonville High School to the degeneration into which it must fall upon being deprived of our presence.

Secondly, we leave to the school a few visible means of remembrance, such as: Initials carved on desks, chewing gum, a few class members, etc.

Thirdly, we leave the Faculty in a sorrowing state of mind because such smart people are leaving.

Fourthly, we leave to the Junior Class the coveted honor of occupying our position. We hope, however, that the name of Senior will never be disgraced by their conduct.

Fifthly, we leave the Freshmen and equally dumb Sophomores the consoling thought that all things do end sometime.

Note—Since there are a few things which no one seems to want or need, we hereby merely leave them behind.

Bill Goebel's jokes.

Ardeen Black's endless chatter.

Junior Underbrink's fatal charm.

Donald Atkinson's miraculous mathematical mind.

Sam Fancher's alibis.
